FACTS

- 24.On or about May 22, 2017 Plaintiff incurred a financial obligation to

 WebBank related to a personal credit card issued by First Bankcard in the Plaintiff's name (the "Debt"). The Debt was given an account number by

 First Bankcard and the last four numbers of the account were 9432.
- 25. The Debt arose out of a transaction in which the money, property, insurance or services which were the subject of the transaction were primarily for personal, family or household purposes, namely fees emanating from a personal loan account in the Plaintiff's name.
- 26. The personal loan account with WebBank was not opened by Plaintiff for business purposes.
- 27. The personal loan account with WebBank was not used by Plaintiff for business purposes.
- 28.Plaintiff's personal credit loan account Debt to WebBank is a "debt" as defined by 15 U.S.C. §1692a(5).

- 29. The loan documents contained an assignment clause which stated that WebBank uses Avant, Inc to maintain a record of ownership. See paragraph 12 of the loan document attached.

- 30. The assignment clause went on to say that any assignment of the loan is only valid if it is registered in such record of ownership.
- 31. The Debt went into default because of non-payment.
- 32.Because of unfortunate life events during graduate school including Plaintiff being in an accident and his mother passing away plaintiff fell behind on his bills.
- 33. After the alleged Debt went into default pursuant to the terms of the agreement creating the Debt, the Debt was allegedly sold to ARI.
- 34. The Debt was in default when it was allegedly purchased by ARI.
- 35.ARI claims it purchased the defaulted Debt and is now the entity to whom the Debt is owed.
- 36.ARI contends that the Debt is past-due.
- 37.ARI contends that the Debt is in default.
- 38.At all times relevant hereto, ARI acted in an attempt to collect the Debt.
- 39.In an attempt to collect the Debt, ARI commenced an action ("Collection Action") against Plaintiff by filing a statement of claim ("Collection Complaint") on May 9, 2019 in the Magistrate Court of the State of Georgia, County of Sumter entitled "Absolute Resolutions Investments, LLC v.

- Vamsee Mallineni" and designated in that court by Case No. 20-0563. See Attached Statement of Claim.
- 40. The Collection Complaint stated that ARI is successor in interest to WebBank.
- 41. The Collection Complaint also states that the chain of title is attached as Exhibit B.
- 42. Exhibit B is titled "Certificate of Loan Sale".
- 43.Exhibit B states that WebBank originates loans that are serviced by Avant, LLC.
- 44.Exhibit B further states that the loans identified by loan number on the attached Exhibit A was originated by WebBank.
- 45.Exhibit B also states "On or about the respective "(Sale Date)" set forth on Exhibit A, [WebBank] transferred... to Avant II, LLC, Avant of New Jersey, LLC...., or Avant of South Carolina, LLC..... each loan identified on exhibit A.
- 46. The loan identified as Exhibit A appears to be a very poor copy of tiny words which have been truncated and literally cut out and pasted on a piece of paper and then copied. Exhibit A has some of Plaintiff's account information for his WebBank account.

- 47. Upon receiving the statement of claim, Plaintiff read and understood the statement of claim.
- 48. Plaintiff is a teacher.
- 49. Upon receiving the attached statement of claim Plaintiff was frightened, scared, uneasy, unable to eat properly, worried, stressed, nervous and anxious.
- 50.Plaintiff suffered emotional distress as a result of the statement of claim including helplessness and an invasion of privacy.
- 51. The statement of claim threated Plaintiff and was very intimidating to Plaintiff because he did not believe that he owed money to ARI and the documents did not establish that ARI had a right to collect the debt.
- 52.Plaintiff was confused by the statement of claim because he was not aware that he owed money to ARI.
- 53. Nothing in the statement of claim showed that there was a "chain of title" proving that the debt is owed to ARI.
- 54.Under Georgia law, ARI was required to prove that it was entitled to bring a breach of contract claim against Plaintiff. But its statement of claim did not show that, causing Plaintiff anguish.
- 55. Upon receiving the statement of claim, Plaintiff called ARI's law firm disputing the debt and requesting validation.

- 56.He later followed up this request with a letter. See attached Exhibit B.
- 57.Plaintiff made multiple phone calls and waited on hold for extended periods of time following up on his dispute and request for validation.
- 58. Despite this, to this day, Plaintiff has not received any validation.
- 59. Plaintiff believed that his dispute would give him time to verify that lawsuit's validity and he did not have to respond to the court papers.
- 60.Defendant's lawyer suggested to Plaintiff that he was doing everything he needed and he was in good standing with them and he should just wait for dispute results and he did not need to respond to the statement of claim.
- 61.By late September 2020 after still not having heard from Defendant, Plaintiff called and retained the undersigned to deal with statement of claim.
- 62. The undersigned immediately answered the statement of claim denying that ARI had a right to collect the debt.
- 63. Plaintiff suffered damages because he retained the undersigned due to ARI's actions.
- 64. Plaintiff spent many hours dealing with this collection action.

COUNT I—FDCPA CLAIM

- 65. Plaintiff incorporates all of the above paragraphs as though fully stated here.
- 66.ARI is liable for the acts of itself and its attorney under regular agency principals.

- 67.ARI directed and supervised all of the above actions directed at Plaintiff.
- 68.ARI reviewed the statement of claim and knew or recklessly permitted it to issue to Plaintiff despite knowing it had no chain of title.
- 69.§ 1692e provides 16 specific prohibited categories of unlawful conduct preceded by a statement that "A debt collector may not use any false, deceptive, or misleading representation or means in connection with the collection of any debt."
- 70.Defendant's violations include but are not limited to 1692e: (2)A), (3), (5), (10), (12) and (15).
- 71.Defendant also violated 1692f (1) by attempting to collect money from Plaintiff unlawfully.

COUNT II-FBPA CLAIM

- 72. ARI engaged in a consumer transaction attempting to collect Plaintiff's debt.
- 73. A violation of the FDCPA constitutes a violation of the FBPA.
- 74.Because misrepresenting consumers' financial indebtedness to others has a potential adverse effect on the consumer marketplace and the economy in general, collecting a debt incurred during a consumer transaction could harm the general consuming public if conducted via deceptive acts or practices and clearly falls within the parameters of the state Fair Business Practices Act.

- 75. Plaintiff was injured because of and as a result of ARI's deceptive collection as explained above.
- 76.Plaintiff was injured by ARI's actions in violation of the FDCPA and the FBPA because the violations caused him emotional distress, mental anguish and required him to hire a lawyer as explained above.
- 77. Plaintiff's anxiety and sense of powerless increased as a result of ARI's misinformation and faulty statement of claim and his repeated unsuccessful attempts to validate the debt.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests that the Court enter judgment in his favor and against ARI for:

- (1) Statutory damages, actual, treble and punitive damages for the Plaintiff;
- (2) Litigation expenses, attorney's fees and costs of suit;
- (3) Such other or further relief as the Court considers proper.

JURY TRIAL DEMAND

Plaintiff demands a jury on all issues so triable.

DATED this 30th day of September 2020.

Respectfully submitted,

By: s/ Shimshon Wexler Ga Bar No. 436163 S Wexler, LLC 2244 Henderson Mill Rd, Ste 108 Atlanta, GA 30345 (212) 760-2400 (917) 512-6132 (FAX) swexleresq@gmail.com

ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

1. Parties, Status of Application; Further Steps Before Approval and Funding of Loan.

WebBank, an FDIC-insured, state-chartered industrial bank headquartered in Salt Lake City, Utah, identified above as Lender/Creditor ("WebBank") is the lender of this loan. In this Loan Agreement and Promissory Note ("Note" or "Agreement"), the words "you," "your" and "Borrower(s)" mean the Borrower(s) identified above. The words "we," "us," "our" mean WebBank, and after consummation any person who obtains WebBank's rights in this Note. We have not yet committed to make the Loan. We will only be committed to make the Loan if and when we initiate, in Utah, a transfer of funds from our offices in Utah to the bank account you identify for this purpose in the process of applying for the Loan.

2. Loan Proceeds; Promise to Pay, Interest.

If all conditions to funding the Loan are met (see Section 1) and the Loan is funded: (a) the Loan proceeds will be deposited into Your Bank Account as defined below; and (b) you promise to pay to us (i) the principal sum of $6000.00; (ii) simple interest, which accrues daily on the outstanding principal balance, from May 24, 2017 until the date the Loan is paid in full, at the daily rate of 0.08997260%; and (iii) any and all other amounts that become due and payable under this Note (collectively, the "Debt").

3. (a) Note Payments; Application of Payments.

This Note is payable in 36 substantially equal monthly installments, including (i) 35 payments of $264.34, commencing Saturday, June 24, 2017; and (ii) a single final payment of the remaining amount outstanding under the Loan, payable one month later (the "Maturity Date"). Payments will be due on the same day of each corresponding month. You may choose to repay by either of the options below in the Section 3(b) Payment Authorization as well as any other reasonable form of payment, including but not limited to paper check, money order, debit card or credit card. We have based the payment schedule on the assumption that you will pay all payments as scheduled. If any payment is scheduled on a date we are not open for business, then you agree to pay us on the next business day, and we will credit such payment as if we received it on the appropriate Payment Date. Payments will be applied first to outstanding fees, if any, then to accrued interest, and then to principal. On the Maturity Date, any unpaid Debt will be payable in full. Unless modified by a Payment Plan, the final required payment will likely vary somewhat from prior required payments due to, among other things, early payments or paying more than scheduled, and late payments. If your payment history causes the interest owing to be less than the above payment schedule, we will adjust your final payoff payment to reflect such decrease. If your payment history causes the interest owing to be more than the above payment schedule, then you have the following options: (i) you may instruct us by contacting Avant at 800.712.5407 or support@avant.com to adjust your final payoff payment to reflect such increase; or (ii) unless you contact us by communicating with Avant at 800.712.5407 or support@avant.com and we otherwise agree in writing to increase your final payoff payment, you agree to make payments under a Payment Plan until your obligations are paid in full. Under such Payment Plan, interest will continue to accrue under the terms of this Loan Agreement, and

3. (b) Payment Authorization.

The payment method checked below is based on your previous selection. However, you may choose to repay by any other reasonable form of payment, including but not limited to paper check, money order, debit card or credit card. If you wish to change your payment method, you may contact us by communicating with Avant at 800-712-5407 or support@avant.com. You understand that we will process your payments provided in the Payment Schedule in Section 3(a) above by the method checked below, which gives you convenience and gives us security that payments will be received on time.

You agree that we may present for payment to your Bank up to two times any Remotely Created Check that is dishonored, including any Remotely Created Check submitted for any applicable Late Fee or Dishonored Payment Fee.

The Amount Financed is the Principal Loan Amount less the Administration Fee, Pre-payments will not result in the refund of any Administration Fee amount. You acknowledge that the Administration Fee is considered a part of your Principal Loan Amount and is subject to the accrual of interest.
- (b) If a payment is not paid in full within 10 days after its due date, you will be charged $25.00.
- (c) We will charge you a Dishonored Payment Fee of $15.00 each time any payment we initiate or you make in connection with this Note or the Debt is returned unpaid.
- 6. Use of Proceeds.

8. Waivers.

We may accept late or partial payments, even though marked "paid in full," or with similar language, without losing any of our rights under this Note, and we may delay enforcing any of our rights under this Note without losing them. We do not have to: (a) give notice that amounts due have not been paid ("notice of dishonor"), (b) demand payment of amounts due ("presentment"), or (c) obtain an official certification of nonpayment ("protest"). Neither our failure to exercise any of our rights, nor our delay in enforcing or exercising any of our rights, will waive those rights in whole or in part, regardless of how often we fail or delay in enforcing or exercising such rights.

To the extent allowed by law, no extension of time for payment of any part of the Debt, and no alteration, amendment or waiver of any provision of this Note or any other document or agreement relating to the Debt or this Note shall release, modify, amend, waive, extend, change, discharge, terminate or affect your unconditional liability, and that of any other person or party who may become liable for the payment of all or part of the Debt.

9. Applicable Interest and/or Loan Charge Maximums Will Be Observed.

Notwithstanding any provision of this Note to the contrary, if any law applicable to this Note or the Debt is finally interpreted so that the interest or other charges or fees collected or to be collected in connection with the Debt or this Note exceed the legally permitted limit, then: (a) any such interest, charge or fee shall be reduced by the amount necessary to reflect and be in compliance with the maximum permitted limit; and (b) any sums already collected, to the extent such sums would otherwise exceed a permitted limit, will be refunded to you. We may choose to make this refund by reducing the Debt and/or by making a direct payment to you.

Non-Negotiable Instrument.

This Note is not a negotiable instrument.

. 20. Arbitration Provision.

By signing below, you agree to this Jury Trial Waiver and Arbitration Clause ("Clause"):

Background and Scope.

What is arbitration?	An alternative to court.	In arbitration, a third party ("Arbiter") solves Disputes in a hearing ("hearing"). You, related third parties, and we, waive the right to go to court. Such "parties" waive jury trials.
Is it different from court and	Yes.	The hearing is private and less formal than court. Arbiters may limit pre-hearing fact jury trials?		finding, called "discovery." The decision is final. Courts rarely overturn Arbiters.

Who does the Clause cover?	You, Us, and Others.	This Clause governs the parties, their heirs, successors, assigns, and third parties related to any Dispute.
Which Disputes are covered?	All Disputes.	In this Clause, the word "Disputes" has the broadest possible meaning. This Clause governs all "Disputes" involving the parties. This includes all claims even indirectly related to your application and agreements with us. This includes claims related to information you previously gave us. It includes all past agreements. It includes extensions, renewals, refinancings, or payment plans. It includes claims related to collections, privacy, and customer information. It includes claims related to setting aside this Clause. It includes claims about the Clause's validity and scope. It includes claims about whether to arbitrate.
Are you waiving rights?	Yes.	You waive your rights to: 1. Have juries solve Disputes. 2. Have courts, other than small-claims courts, solve Disputes. 3. Serve as a private attorney general or in a representative capacity. 4. Be in a class action.
Are you waiving class action rights?	Yes.	COURTS AND ARBITERS WON'T ALLOW CLASS ACTIONS. You waive your rights to be in a class action, as a representative and a member. Only individual arbitration, or small-claims courts, will solve Disputes. You waive your right to have representative claims. Unless reversed on appeal, if a court invalidates this waiver, the Clause will be void.
What law applies?	The Federal Arbitration Act ("FAA").	This transaction involves interstate commerce, so the FAA governs. If a court finds the FAA doesn't apply, and the finding can't be appealed, then your state's law governs. The Arbiter must apply substantive law consistent with the FAA. The Arbiter must follow statutes of limitation and privilege claims.
Can the parties try to solve Disputes first?	Yes.	We can try to solve Disputes if you call us at 800-712-5407. If this doesn't solve the Dispute, mail us notice, within 100 days of the Dispute date. In your notice, tell us the details and how you want to solve it. We will try to solve the Dispute. If we make a written offer ("Settlement Offer"), you can reject it and arbitrate. If we don't solve the Dispute, either party may start arbitration. To start arbitration, contact an Arbiter or arbitration group listed below. No party will disclose settlement proposals to the Arbiter during arbitration.
How should you contact us?	By mail.	Send mail to: 222 N. LaSalle St., Suite 1700, Chicago, Illinois 60601. You can call us at 800-712-5407 or use certified mail to confirm receipt.
Can small-claims court solve some Disputes?	Yes.	Each party has the right to arbitrate, or to go to small-claims court if the small-claims court has the power to hear the Dispute. Arbitration will solve all Disputes that the small-claims court does not have the power to hear. If there is an appeal from small-claims court, or if a Dispute changes so that the small-claims court loses the power to hear it, then the Dispute will only be heard by an Arbiter.
Do other options exist?	: Yes.	Both parties may use lawful self-help remedies. This includes set-off or repossession and sale of any collateral. Both parties may seek remedies which don't claim money damages. This includes pre-judgment seizure, injunctions, or equitable relief.

Will this Clause continue to govern?	Yes, unless otherwise agreed.	The Clause stays effective unless the parties sign an agreement stating it doesn't. The Clause governs if you rescind the transaction. It governs if you default, renew, prepay, or pay. It governs if your contract is discharged through bankruptcy. The Clause remains effective, despite a transaction's termination, amendment, expiration, or performance.

Process.

How does arbitration start?	Mailing a notice.	Either party may mail the other a request to arbitrate, even if a lawsuit has been filed. The notice should describe the Dispute and relief sought. The receiving party must mail a response within 20 days. If you mail the demand, you may choose the arbitration group. Or, your demand may state that you want the parties to choose a local Arbiter. If related third parties or we mail the demand, you must respond in 20 days. Your response must choose an arbitration group or propose a local Arbiter. If it doesn't, we may choose the group.
Who arbitrates?	AAA, JAMS, or an agreed Arbiter.	You may select the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") (1-800-778-7879) http://www.adr.org or JAMS (1-800-352-5267) http://www.jamsadr.com. The parties may also agree in writing to a local attorney, retired judge, or Arbiter in good standing with an arbitration group. The Arbiter must arbitrate under AAA or JAMS consumer rules. You may get a copy of these rules from such group. Any rules that conflict with any of our agreements with you, don't apply. If these options aren't available, and the parties can't agree on another, a court may choose the Arbiter. Such Arbiter must enforce your agreements with us, as they are written.
Will the hearing be held nearby?	Yes.	The Arbiter will order the hearing within 30 miles of your home or where the transaction occurred.
What about appeals?	Appeals are limited.	The Arbiter's decision will be final. A party may file the Arbiter's award with the proper court. Arbitration will solve appeals of a small-claims court judgment. A party may appeal under the FAA. If the amount in controversy exceeds $10,000.00, a party may appeal the Arbiter's finding. Such appeal will be to a three-Arbiter panel from the same arbitration group. The appeal will be de novo, and solved by majority vote. The appealing party bears appeal costs, despite the outcome.

Arbitration Fees and Awards.

Will we advance Arbitration Fees?	Yes, but you pay your costs.	We will advance your "Arbitration Fees" if you ask us to. This includes filing, administrative, hearing, and Arbiter's fees. You pay your attorney fees and other expenses.
Are damages and attorney fees possible?	Yes, if allowed by law.	The Arbiter may award the same damages as a court. Arbiters may award reasonable attorney fees, and expenses, if allowed by law.
Will you pay Arbitration	No.	If the Arbiter awards you funds, you don't reimburse us the Arbitration Fees.

Fees if you win?
Will you ever pay Arbitration Fees?	Yes.	If the Arbiter doesn't award you funds, then you must repay the Arbitration Fees. If you must pay Arbitration Fees, the amount won't exceed state court costs.
What happens if you win?	You could get more than the Arbiter awarded.	If an Arbiter's award to you exceeds our last Settlement Offer, we will pay the greater of the award amount or $7500 in addition to your attorneys' fees and reasonable expert witness costs and other costs incurred.
Can an award be explained?	Yes.	A party may request details from the Arbiter, within 14 days of the ruling. Upon such request, the Arbiter will explain the ruling in writing.

Other Options.

 If you don't want to arbitrate, can you still get a transaction?	Yes. You can get our services and decide not to arbitrate.	Consider these choices: 1. Informal Dispute Resolution. Contact us, and attempt to settle any Disputes. 2. Small-claims Court. Seek to solve Disputes in small-claims court, within state law limits. 3. Opt-Out of Arbitration. Sign and then timely opt-out.	J
Can you opt-out of the Clause?	Yes. Within 60 days.	Write us within 60 calendar days of signing your agreement to opt-out of the Clause for that agreement. List your name, address, account number and date. List that you "opt out." If you opt out, it will only apply to that agreement.	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·

Re: Case No: 20-0563

This is in response to your communication of 07/16/2020, a copy of which is enclosed along with this letter. On 07/30/2020, I called in response to the attached documents and spoke to debt collector who identified as Jordan. I informed him that I am requesting validation of the debt for the above account and followed up with the same person on 08/17/2020 during which Jordan asked me to follow up in two weeks if no response is received. Upon receiving no response from you, I called again on 09/02/2020 and spoke to a person who identified as Roosevelt and when inquired, I was told that I need to call back to check on the dispute status in a week. After long wait times and never ending holds for many time, I was able to connect with a different person on 09/5/2020 who identified as Jevon again to inquire about the status of this dispute process.

Under the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, you are required to respond to my request for validation within 30 days of receipt of my communication. However, it has been more than 30 days, and I have yet to receive a response. Under both State and Federal consumer law I have the right to get have my debt validated, and you are obligated to respond within the statutory time limit.

Failure to respond to my requests for validation is a violation of the Fair Credit Reporting Act and may result in an investigation of your company by the Federal Trade Commission.

Any attempt to collect on this debt without properly validating would be in violation of the FDCPA and State consumer protection laws. Should you continue to attempt to collect this debt without validation, I have the right to sue you in small claims court and subject you to a fine of $1000 per violation, as well as my attorney fees and court costs as damages.

In addition, I would like to remind you that you are legally obligated not to report a debt that has not been properly validated to any of the credit bureaus. I understand that due to the high volume of communications you receive, my previous communication may have been misplaced or not yet reviewed due to an oversight. However, I am sure you wish to resolve this matter as quickly as possible and avoid any unnecessary complications. Should you fail to respond to this letter within 15 business days, I will not hesitate to report these violations my State's Attorney General, the Federal Trade Commission, and file a complaint with the Better Business Bureau.
